BLIZZARDS HAMMER SECTIONS OF NORTHEAST

CIVIL RIGHTS FIGHT GOES TO THE HOUSE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thirteen senators joined today in proposing a bill designed to encourage racial integration of schools, but to compel compliance with Supreme Court rulings in that field if necessary.

The new civil rights measure also would arm the attorney general with authority to seek federal court injunctions for the protection of civil rights generally a proposal defeated last year after a bitter battle.

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) announced he was introducing the bill with twelve other senators, seven Democrats and five Republicans, as cosponsors. He said a companion measure was being introduced in the House.

The legislation would authorize appropriation of 12½ million dollars over the next five years for federal assistance to states and local government units in developing community understanding and plans for school integration.

In addition, federal grants of 40 million dollars a year for each of the next five years would be authorized for school buildings, the employment of additional teachers and other costs incident to eliminating racial segregation.

Douglas noted that under this section funds could be made available to "local communities that wish to comply with the court's decisions, but where, as in Georgia and Virginia, the state threatens to cut off funds or close the schools."

Should efforts to achieve voluntary compliance fail, the secretary of health, education and welfare would be empowered by the legislation to draw up school integration plans in line with the Supreme Court's ruling.

If the secretary were unable to secure their acceptance from state or local officials, the attorney general would be authorized to seek federal court injunctions to force compliance.

Lionel Hebert Is Winner of Tucson Open Tournament

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Conservative golf gave Lionel Hebert of Lafayette, La., the championships of the $15,000 Tucson Open and sent him to the San Antonio Open this week richer by $2,000.

Playing his shots with caution after taking the lead on the second hole of the final round, the PGA champ came home with a 66 for the par-70, 6,334-yard El Rio layout. He had a 72-hole total of 265, 15 under par.

Putting played a big role in his first medal play win of the PGA circuit. For several weeks before, putting had been troubling him.

Chandlers Valley Leader Is Chosen Den Mother of Year

Harry Cooper, Advisor of Post 6, St. Joseph's church, Warren, was named Unit Leader of the year 1958, and Mrs. Irene Engstrom, Pack 18, Chandlers Valley Lutheran church was named Den Mother of the year at Recognition Day Ceremonies for Boy Scout Leaders at the Warren County Court House last Saturday.

In making the award, Judge Alexander C. Flick, Jr., cited Harry Cooper for long and effective service as a Scout, a Cub Scout Leader, and as an Explorer Post Advisor. He cited Mrs. Engstrom for effecting the organizing of Pack 18, serving both Chandlers Valley and Sugar Grove, and for proving the effectiveness of ladies as community chairman for the Boy Scout County Campaign.

Henry Walker presented training awards to Joe Acks, Scoutmaster of Troop 6, and to Paul Shogren, Scoutmaster of Troop 35.

Upstate New York Appears To Be the Hardest Hit With Schools and Plants Closed

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Blizzards hammered sections of the Northeast today, paralyzing industry and business in many areas, as the season's coldest weather maintained an icy hold across the Eastern two thirds of the country.

Upstate New York appeared the hardest hit by the blizzards. Blowing and drifting snow—with drifts 15 feet piled up on some highways—blocked hundreds of roads and marooned countless hundreds of motorists and farmers.

Schools in many places were ordered closed. Many industries also were shut down.

Syracuse, a city of 220,000, reeled from the storm, the worst since 1925. Snowfall yesterday measured more than a foot, bringing to 34 inches the amount of snow on the ground. Emergency measures were declared in the city and also in Utica.

The stormy weather was blamed for at least 13 lives in New York state, mostly in traffic accidents.

Violent weather in other parts of the country was blamed for 15 additional deaths, making a total of 28. Deaths resulted from traffic accidents on snow-covered or icy roads, and from heart attacks while shoveling snow.

Stormy weather also pounded the New England area, where eight deaths were reported.

Snow, freezing rain or drizzle mixed with sleet created hazardous driving conditions in northern Texas, Oklahoma and southwest Kansas. Oklahoma reported seven deaths in traffic accidents on icy roads.

Should efforts to achieve voluntary compliance fail, the secretary of health, education and welfare would be empowered by the legislation to draw up school integration plans in line with the Supreme Court's ruling.

If the secretary were unable to secure their acceptance from state or local officials, the attorney general would be authorized to seek federal court injunctions to force compliance.

Former York Democratic Leader Given Parole

HARRISBURG (AP)—Former York County Democratic Chairman John W. Crand, Manchester Rd. has been paroled by the Dauphin County Court.

Crand, who testified for the prosecution in the trial of Victor Prep, Frackville cinders contractor convicted of false pretense and conspiracy, had been sentenced to a three-month prison term. He had pleaded guilty to the same offenses.

At a hearing Saturday before Judge Homer L. Kreider, Crand noted he had returned $2,864 to the commonwealth and had paid a $400 fine. He also testified his wife was ill and he had three children to support.

The church rented the Northwestern Pacific Railroad cars for its Bible school. And they were turned into classrooms yesterday.

The 50 children were more preoccupied with the seats than their lessons, prompting the Rev. Forrest Youngquist to observe: "We'll have to put in portable chairs and tables."

Old Time Winter Grips Warren Area

A bitter wind, zero temperatures and drifting snow clogged Warren County's northern byways over the weekend as a "good old fashioned winter" blew through the area.

Predictions were for continued wind and cold at least another 24 hours.

Temperatures had dropped steadily since Friday morning when a low of 22 was reported. Saturday the low was nine degrees, Sunday the mercury stood at 5 and this morning an official low of zero was reported in the borough by Weather Observer Gil Reier. Temperatures stood at minus six up Jackson Run this morning.

Winds of gale force pushed the cold into bone marrow of the few hardy pedestrians.

Drifted winds blocked byways in the Sugar Grove, Scandia, Lottsville and Columbus sections while highway crews fought to keep open roads which drifted shortly after plows passed. State Troopers reported no accidents but traffic was very scarce. Those few drivers who dared the roads drove with high beam lights to protect themselves from oncoming traffic as swirling winds completely obscured the road for dozens of yards at a time. Plows kept all main roads open.

Explorer Scouts in Capitol for Tour

HARRISBURG (AP)—A group of Pennsylvania Explorer Scouts came here today to meet state officials and formally open Pennsylvania's observance of National Boy Scout Week.

Downs Herold, Bradford, winner of the Pennsylvania Report to the Nation contest, met with Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman and other officials to explain the Scout program for 1958, which has a "National Safety Good Turn" theme.

The scouts, representing 30 councils throughout the state, went to Hershey after the capitol tour for a luncheon and speaking program there.

During the Hershey luncheon, the group planned to present a "Safety Good Turn" plaque to a representative of Gov. Leader, who was unable to be present.

FCC STUDY MAY RESULT IN OUSTER

WASHINGTON (AP)—A House subcommittee investigating the Federal Communications Commission meets today with all signs pointing to the probable ouster of its controversial counsel Bernard Schwartz.

The firing of Schwartz in a dispute over his expense vouchers could lead to a lengthy delay in the group's probe of the FCC and other regulatory agencies. This investigation has aroused considerable dissension within the subcommittee, chiefly over Schwartz's handling of hearings on the FCC last week.

In advance of the subcommittee meeting, Schwartz denied there was anything irregular about certain of his expense accounts totaling $400. But he predicted: "They are going to fire me." He said he would not resign. Two subcommittee members, one a critic and the other a backer of Schwartz, agreed he was probably on his way out.

Schwartz contended he is being ousted because he wanted public hearings that he said would go into some cases of White House influence.

The Washington Post quoted him as saying "we have actual evidence" that Sherman Adams, President Eisenhower's top aide, "has played a part in cases involving several (regulatory) agencies."

Without going into details, Schwartz also said the hearings would have touched on Secretary of Commerce Weeks; Col. George Moore, Mrs. Eisenhower's brother-in-law; former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York; former Undersecretary of Commerce Robert B. Murray Jr.; an unidentified FCC member; and "possibly" Vice President Nixon.

There was no immediate comment from the White House or from any of those mentioned by Schwartz.

The 34-year-old subcommittee counsel said that "powerful interests . . . will stop at nothing" to halt the probe of the FCC. He said the issue raised over his expenses is "an attempt to divert the investigation which . . . will succeed."

The Post quoted Schwartz as saying Chairman Harris (D-Ark) of the parent House Commerce Committee was using his disputed expense account as a means of forcing his resignation just as the subcommittee was due to open hearings tomorrow on "pay-off" in the granting of a TV license. He did not elaborate on this.

The FCC probe has centered so far on allegations—based on a memorandum prepared by Schwartz—that some commission members improperly accepted favors from the broadcasting industry. These favors allegedly included travel and other expenses when FCC members attended radio-TV trade meetings.

Funeral Services for Msgr. Michael J. Macken Will Be Held Thursday at 11 A. M.

MSGR. MICHAEL J. MACKEN

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Michael J. Macken, beloved priest of St. Clara's Roman Catholic parish in Clarendon and its mission parish, St. Anthony's in Sheffield, died at the rectory in Clarendon at 11:00 p. m. Sunday. In failing health for the past two years, his condition had become more serious and he had been confined to his home since last May.

Born in Castle Bar, County Mayo, Ireland, on March 1, 1872, Michael Macken came to this country as a youth and took up studies for the priesthood at St. Bonaventure's College, Allegany, N. Y.

He was ordained to the priesthood June 4, 1898, at the Cathedral in Buffalo, N. Y., and served a number of pastorates before coming to the Clarendon-Sheffield charge in 1929 from St. Catherine's in DuBois.

On the occasion of the golden anniversary of his ordination, in 1948, his alma mater, St. Bonaventure's, recognized him with an honorary doctor of laws degree, the presentation and other festivities highlighting a dinner held in his honor in Kane.

Faithful servant of his church in the Erie Catholic Diocese and his twin parish in Clarendon-Sheffield, he was elevated to the rank of monsignor in 1953 by Archbishop John Mark Gannon of Erie.

Well known in his home community, Msgr. Macken was an ardent golfer and only gave up active participation in that sport in very recent years.

Surviving him are a brother, Patrick Macken, and a niece, Mrs. Mary Bourke, in Castle Bar, Ireland; a nephew, Francis Macken, Burlington, Vt., and a cousin, Mrs. John O'Donnell, Bridgeport, Conn.

Msgr. Macken's body will lie in state in St. Clara's church, Clarendon, starting at 7:00 p. m. today, and a solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated there at 11:00 a. m. Thursday. Interment will follow in the priests' plot in St. Joseph's cemetery.

Celebrant of the mass will be Father M. E. Dailey, of Holy Redeemer church of Warren; deacon, Father Carl Lippert, of (Turn to Page Eight)

FRENCH RAID ON TUNISIA DENOUNCED

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Tunisia deliberated today whether to ask for U. N. Security Council action on the French bombing of a Tunisian frontier village. Both the United States and Britain voiced concern over the explosive situation, but expressed hope it could be smoothed over.

In Paris, Premier Felix Gaillard came under attack for allowing military men to embroil the country in a serious diplomatic battle. He called a special meeting of his Cabinet.

Rockets to the Moon Perhaps This Year Air Force Predicts

WASHINGTON (AP)—Military missiles experts say the Army and the Air Force could shoot rockets as far as the moon this year.

Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris, chief of the Army Ballistic Missile Agency at Huntsville, Ala., said the Army could put a satellite in orbit around the moon within months, if it got permission to try. Medaris also said on a television interview that the Army could send a manned expedition to the moon in 15 years.

Defense Department missiles specialists said the Air Force's 1,500-mile-range Thor missile could be augmented by additional rocket stages to send a payload to the moon this year. So far, the department has given no orders for such a try.

The payload in a moon rocket would include radio transmitters for sending back information on the flight and a spotter charge to mark the rocket's impact on the moon, the experts said.

The Air Force's moon rocket capabilities were discussed in a Pentagon briefing which covered various advances in American missile and antimissile missile research and development.

The Army used its Jupiter-C rocket in modified form to launch America's first earth satellite, the Explorer, Jan. 31. The Explorer still is speeding around the earth.

Medaris said he expects another satellite try sometime between now and April 1. This second satellite would be the same size—around 30 pounds—but with more advanced instruments, he said.

He spoke of future attempts to launch 100-pound and 500-pound space vehicles. Russia's second Sputnik, still aloft, weighs half a ton.

He said the timing of an effort to put up a 500-pound satellite with photographic equipment depends on "how soon they tell me to go ahead and give me the money." Engineering and other preliminary work on such a reconnaissance vehicle has been under way for some time. He said, but the project is "not at the hardware stage."

License to Store Dangerous Cobalt Is Granted C. D.

The Atomic Energy Commission has granted Warren County Civil Defense a license to store radioactive cobalt. Approval came from federal civil defense after six months of effort by county authorities.

The cobalt is enclosed in a lead cylinder three inches thick, and will be kept under lock and key.

Dr. Karl J. Fritz Jr., associate radiologist at Warren General Hospital, will serve as the safety officer.

"We need the cobalt for our new Radiological School, which opens Feb. 20," explained James Wright, the instructor. "It will be used in Geiger counters and two other instruments for training purposes. Meanwhile, we have on order 12 sets of instruments to be placed throughout the county for emergency use."

With the arrival of the Sputnik age, county civil defense authorities urge as many men and women as possible to sign up for the vital new course. The latest survival information will be given during the six weeks of Thursday night meetings in the Court House small courtroom. So far more than 30 residents have registered for the classes with the civil defense office. Forty men and women were graduated from the preceding course.

Explorer Gives Map Experts a Big Assist

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—The satellite Explorer is giving map experts a big hand in correcting errors of distance on the earth's surface.

Over vast areas such as the Pacific there now may be a large variation between the actual distance of two points and that shown on the most accurate maps.

A department of the Army release discussed the use to which the satellite is being put. Map experts will improve their calculations by using the Explorer as a reference point instead of the moon. The satellite was launched Jan. 31 from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

Bert Crossett of Pittsburgh sent me today's hand with a request that I comment on the bidding and play.

In particular he wants to know if four hearts should have been bid and if South should have made it. In the actual play South won the opening club lead and played the ace and king of hearts whereupon he had to lose four tricks.

The answer to those questions is that four hearts certainly is a proper contract and that I can find nothing wrong with South's play except the actual result. Holding nine cards in a suit there is no excuse for a first round finesse for the queen.

As for the bidding, there is a lot of interest there. The opening bid and the two passes are correct but South really showed lack of enterprise when he bid one spade only. He had every reason to expect that the bidding would die right there and it would take very little in the North hand to produce a game.

South should either have bid two spades or doubled the one club.

West's rebids were reasonable although if North had thought of doubling four clubs West would have been set two tricks. Also South's hand definitely warranted all his rebids.

Finally we come to North's bid of four hearts. North must have played with South before and known how conservative South was. Hence with five trumps and an ace he was justified in going to four hearts even though the hand did not make.

Q—The bidding has been:
South West North East
1 ♠ 1 ♠ Double Redbl. 2 ♠
3 ♠ Pass 4 ♠ Pass
You, South, hold:
♠ A K 9 7 5 4 3 2 ♣ K 7 6 4 J 8 6 5
What do you bid?
A—Four hearts. Even though you only have 11 high card points and have already jumped there may be a slam and you have nothing to lose by this bid. Your partner can still bid four spades.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding is as above and you are again back to North holding:
♠ Q J 8 4 ♥ Q 7 5 ♦ 8 ♣ A Q 10 9 2
West passes after your partner's four-heart bid. What do you, North, do now?

D. E. Fenton has been appointed a representative in the Youngstown district of Industries Group. He attended the University of Cincinnati and then engaged in sales work at the Norwood (Ohio) Works of Allis-Chalmers starting in 1956. Included in the Youngstown district are the Ohio counties of Columbiana, Mahoning, and Trumbull; and the Pennsylvania counties of Crawford, Erie, Lawrence, Mercer, Venango, Warren, and McKean.

BACKS TO ACCIDENT

Glen A. Dase, 44, of Akeley, backed into an accident about 9 a. m. Saturday at the crossroads in Russell. According to troopers, Dase, who was operating a highway clandering truck, pulled off the highway, saw no traffic, then started to back up to go to work. Unseen, as he proceeded south on Route 62 was Harold Jordan, 69, of Russell. The collision damaged the Jordan vehicle to the extent of approximately $100. There was no damage to the highway truck.

WAGE-INCOME TAX

The Lewis Run Borough Council last night adopted a one-percent wage-income tax modeled after the one that went into effect in Bradford last week to keep its taxable money at home. The borough expects to raise $5,000 a year from the levy, according to legal notices published previously. The tax goes into effect in Lewis Run March 5. In other action the Council adopted a 1958 budget calling for $11,685 in expenditures, about the same as last year.

However, first shots were offered yesterday to kindergarten, first graders and any other children who had not received the vaccine, at the four clinics. Particularly included in yesterday's program were the Polio Pioneers of 1954 because some of the vaccine used in 1954 was believed not of full potency. Dr. Jonas Salk, discoverer of the vaccine, has recommended another series since there is no way of knowing which shots were fully potent and which were not.

Blaze Damages D. Siggins Home Near Sugar Grove

The David Siggins home at Sugar Grove was badly damaged by fire early Saturday morning as the family barely escaped with their lives.

Fire, water and smoke damage was estimated in excess of $15,000 to the furnishings and landmark dwelling, formerly known as "The Three Maples." According to reports, the Siggins family all seemed to awake about the same instant at approximately 3 a. m. Saturday. They escaped downstairs through a stairwell which would probably have been impassable two minutes later.

Mr. Siggins, who was burned over his entire body in a fire a dozen years ago, played one of many available fire extinguishers on the blaze, but the flames had made too much headway.

Approximately 60 volunteer firemen from Sugar Grove, Rusti, Ashville, Bear Lake and Youngsville responded to the alarm and confined the flames to the large living room and immediately adjacent areas. Firewise, after their own experiences, the family prevented drafts. That, plus heavy timbers, helped stall the fire.

Following the blaze, the family stayed with David Siggins' mother, Mrs. Grace Siggins of 4 Second avenue, Warren.

The blaze was believed to have started from defective wiring. The family's cocker spaniel suffocated in the fumes.

It was the third fire for the Siggins' family in about ten years. David Siggins was almost fatally burned when he went back in to rescue his children when his Warren dwelling burned. Ironically, the children were already outside. In 1954, their exercise barn burned, with the loss of valuable show horses.

Found relatively unharmed in the living room were copious notes made by Mr. Siggins who has been accepted as a contestant on the $64,000 Question. He is an expert on musical comedy.

During the blaze, firemen had to call for a snowplow to cut a path to the family pool for more water.

Youngsville Boro Council Discusses The 1958 Budget

Youngsville—The 1958 budget was given careful consideration at the February meeting of Youngsville Borough Council Monday evening.

Council, in agreement with Burgess Crippen, deducted from the proposed budget $4,500 payment to the Sinking Fund from the General Fund, as the balance in the Sinking Fund is adequate to take care of interest and bond payments for 1958. This $4,500 will be placed in the permanent road improvement fund. This program includes storm sewers, grading and base on some streets to prepare the streets for blacktop. Blacktop and curbs are to be laid on two streets which have been drained and prepared. The sum of $8,785 for preparing five streets will be financed from gasoline tax fund and state aid fund. The remainder to be spent on streets will come from general funds and some county aid.

Of the proposed two mill raise, one mill will be set aside in a recreation fund and also used for support of Island Park.

An ordinance renewing the $5 per capita tax and ordinance setting the millage at 19 mills was adopted. The ordinance regulating the keeping of livestock, poultry, and dogs within the borough was returned to Solicitor Harper for correction and addition.

The secretary read a letter from Councilman O. B. Borton, who was unable to attend the meeting because of illness. In his letter, he stated that he did not favor cutting the tax collector's commission as asked by Burgess Crippen, but if such a cut were made he suggested that it be not more than one-half percent deduction from the present commission now paid to the collector. The question of the legality of cutting down the commission was given to Atty. Harper to check.

Council appointed Burgess Crippen as Council's representative on a community development committee.

Councilman R. V. Thompson recommended having Borough

GARLAND

Garland—Local firemen were called to the home of Mrs. Van Guilder at Grand Valley, when fire was discovered by a passing motorist. The entire house was ablaze when the department arrived, but firemen were successful in saving a barn and henhouse. The house was occupied by Mrs. Van Guilder, in her late 70's, and Mrs. Wolfe, past 80, who were taken to a neighbor's and are now in Corry.

About 60 were present for the regular Town Meeting. Following a tureen dinner, the business session was conducted by President Henry Leofsky for discussion of activities and plans to redecorate the interior of the building.

Struthers Begins Year With $17,000,000 in Back Orders

The Struthers Wells Corporation began its present fiscal year with a slightly higher backlog of unfilled orders than last year, President H. W. Conarro disclosed in the company's annual report.

Struthers Wells has plants in Titusville and Warren.

The report, received by stockholders last week, states the backlog is $17,000,000, which is equivalent to nearly nine months' business. The company's year began, Dec. 1.

Mr. Conarro takes a cautious view of the future. He wrote: "However, like everyone else, we are concerned about the duration and depth of the present so-called recession. There has been a definite decline in activity during the last few months resulting in a highly competitive price structure, and a decrease in demand in some of our product lines. We are concentrating on the sale of specialized and highly designed products such as high temperature heaters, crystallizers and grease mixers.

"The consensus is that a gradual upturn will take place after the middle of the year. If this be the case, we will not be seriously affected, although some decline in volume and earnings may be expected during the first part of 1958."

Struthers Wells sales for the 1957 fiscal year amounted to $26,004,434 and exceeded the previous year's peacetime high by $772,129 or three percent. Profits before taxes on income increased from $1,649,791 in 1956 to $2,183,732 in 1957, an increase of 32 percent.

Net profit for 1957 fiscal year amounted to $1,100,432, as compared to $995,891 for the preceding year. After deducting preferred dividends, the earnings per share on the 281,916 shares of common stock amounted to $3.53 per share as compared to $3.16 per share in the previous year based on the same number of outstanding shares.

Other highlights of Mr. Conarro's report are:

New facilities:

"To help offset our constantly increasing labor costs, your Directors authorized the expenditure of approximately $1,000,000, for new machinery and facilities during the year. Over $630,000 was expended for this equipment which was installed during 1957. The balance is on order and will be delivered early in 1958. These new facilities will provide not only additional capacity but should also help to reduce our operating costs and improve our end product. This will also widen the market for our line of forgings. Your attention is called to photographs of some of these new units on Pages 9 to 12 in this report."

Sale of tangent bender licenses: "The corporation has been engaged in the manufacture of metal forming equipment under certain licenses. This business was entirely foreign to the other products of the corporation, particularly with regard to engineering and sales outlets; consequently, the low dollar volume of these products prompted the sale of these licenses and the discontinuance by your Corporation of the manufacture under the license agreements.

"The net profit on the sale of the licenses, after giving effect to inventory write off on these products, amounted to $144,854.

"The discontinuance of these products will not affect the overall output of the Corporation."

SHEFFIELD—The Bethany Lutheran Churchwomen were guests of first Methodist WSCS at the latter's meeting held in the church parlors. The worship service was conducted by Mrs. Jack Parsons; Mrs. William Christenson sang "I Believe" accompanied by Mrs. C. E. Taylor; guests were welcomed by the president, Mrs. H. F. Prisel, and a program on "Match on Missions in Healing" was presented by Mrs. Taylor. Participating in a playlet, "An Interview at the Brewster Hospital in Jacksonville, Fla." were Retta Finney, Mrs. A. S. Brown and Mrs. C. H. Whittaker.

Concluding, delightful refreshments were served from a tea table at which Mrs. H. F. Prisel and Mrs. Evelyn P. Gauder poured. The social committee were Mrs. Howard Perry, Mrs. W. O. Christenson, Mrs. Francis Borden, Mrs. Wallace Sauter, Mrs. L. R. Eichen, and Mrs. Jay Catlin.

Mrs. Victor Bathgate was hostess for the Junior Woman's Club meeting, with co-hostesses Mrs. Joseph Mull and Mrs. Eugene Leseman. The speaker, Dr. John Larson, was unable to be present, so members devoted the evening to a business session. Preliminary plans were made for a banquet in May, and the traveling basket will be continued.

"FOR GOD AND MY COUNTRY"

February 7 to 13 mark the period of the 48th Anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America, and the 42nd anniversary of the Chief Cornplanter Council, according to C. R. Betts, president of the Chief Cornplanter Council.

The entire month will be marked by parent's nights, dinners, and attendance at church in a body. Many of the council's 50 units will have window displays, some of them providing a preview of background material for exhibits at the Boy Scout County Fair, which will be held in Youngsville in May.

A nationwide safety good turn was inaugurated for Scout Anniversary week.

Locally, 1,800 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers and adult leaders are taking part it has been announced by Dr. William L. Ball, Health and Safety chairman of Chief Cornplanter Council.

Dr. Ball says the Safety Good Turn in Warren county was launched February 8 at the Recognition Day ceremony held at the Warren county court house with several hundred in attendance.

The Chief Cornplanter Council Health and Safety Committee headed by Dr. Ball is responsible for developing the program in cooperation with other Boy Scout council committees. The Scout commissioners, together with the council's professional staff, assisted in planning, promoting and conducting projects on a council-wide, district, and unit basis.

Assisting in the development of the local Safety Campaign were H. H. Jefferson of the American Pulpwood association, Bob Jewell of Betts Machine, S. L. Meyer of William F. Crossett, Inc., and Lester Nero of National Forge. The Chief Cornplanter Council plans to offer its cooperation to organizations throughout the county which are already conducting Safety programs. In addition, units of the council will train their members in safe practices, carry out safety projects and distribute safety literature throughout the county.

FUN VS. HARD WORK

A bountiful land like America affords its people not only more economic reward but more leisure, and hence more time for fun, than most enjoy on this earth. This is one of our great blessings and we should be thankful for it.

But if we should try to live entirely for fun, we would soon dissipate our bounty and put in jeopardy not simply our leisure but our well-being and our very national security.

There will be something wrong with us when we get to the point where we have to lure people into earnest labors for themselves and their country by resorting to slogans rooted in the idea of "fun."

As, for example, the current lure: "Science can be fun."

We don't have to be stiff-necked about it. Of course it can, and it should be.

But in few places on this globe does Nature yield either its riches or its secrets without steady, hard work by the hand and brain of man. That is the way of life. This world owes no one either a living or a good time.

With imagination, curiosity, an adventurous spirit and a sense of humor, men can find fun in work as they scratch the crust of this planet. Yet they must not be deluded into thinking that it is—or ought to be—anything else than work.

When we no longer want to work, or to face it for what it is, we may suddenly discover that the zest has gone out of our fun.

MONSIGNOR MACKEN

The death of Monsignor M. J. Macken at his home in Clarendon during the night, removes one of the oldest and most beloved members of the priesthood in the Erie diocese.

Msr. Macken, born in Ireland, would have been 86 years of age, had he lived until March first. Thirty of the sixty years that he has served as a priest were spent at St. Clara's church, Clarendon, and St. Anthony's, Sheffield.

One of the highlights of his long career in serving parishioners occurred in 1933 when he was elevated to the rank of Monsignor by Archbishop John Mark Gannon of Erie.

He has hundreds of friends of all faiths who join members of his two parishes in the general and profound sorrow that accompanies news of his death.

Folks over in Pleasant township are becoming considerably aroused and not a little indignant over the extremely dangerous condition existing on the River Road in that section, where one stretch of about forty feet of embankment of the Allegheny river has washed away within two or three inches of the highway. Additional fear is expressed due to the fact that two school buses pass the point four times daily, carrying almost 100 pupils. They are demanding action—and now!

"They Sure Get the Mileage Out of That Old Crate"

Here and There

If every man and woman in America whose job would not exist but for Thomas A. Edison were to knock off to celebrate his birthday, Tuesday, February 11th, would be a national holiday! It would be difficult indeed to estimate the millions whose work derives from his nearly 1,100 patents—and the ideas he didn't bother to patent—who generate and distribute our electric power make us with records and players entertain and inform us via radio and TV, and produce all manner of equipment and appliances that feed on the force he made available. At no time in our history since Thomas A. Edison's birth 111 years ago have the things he represents been so important to our continued progress, in fact our very existence. His was not only an inquiring mind, but a disciplined one. He assigned himself a task, and stayed with it until it was licked. The Edison Storage Battery, for example, was no miracle (as some said) but the result of ten years of application and 50,000 experiments! He might well be called the father of practical research—practical, because when he perfected an invention he found a company to make it and put it to public use. And his long lifetime of research and development provides inspiring assurance to youth that every new idea begets a train of others. Invention is never finished, scientific curiosity never satisfied. It was this insatiable quest that guided young Max McGraw in the field of electricity and in building an electrical equipment manufacturing concern that was ultimately, as the McGraw-Edison Company, to acquire not only the name of the world's electrical wizard, but to perpetuate his ideas in the merger of the Edison Industries and the McGraw Electric Company, Thomas A. Edison's passion for organized research finds the imagination of present day scientists in the laboratories of the company's 28 divisions and subsidiaries (and as the birthday of the world's most famous ous train-butcher rolls around, the emphasis on research is being stepped up... just as it is throughout the nation. This anniversary in 1958, a year of peril and of trial for the country Thomas A. Edison served so magnificently, is a good time to study and to emulate his way of getting things done.

An expert on boys says you may give the average boy a doughnut to divide with another boy and the other boy will get the hole. Give him a dose of corrective medicine to divide with another boy, and the other boy will get the whole. The boy who sings "I want to be an angel" louder than anyone else in Sunday school is just as likely as not to clip the superintendent's hat off with a snowball as soon as he gets outside.—Warren Mirror, 1898.

The editor knocked at the pearly gates (He was always good at knocking) And the man in charge, so the legend states, Indulged in a laugh that was mocking. "You can't come in," the official said. "My orders are conclusive—On earth your paper always read: 'Our news is all exclusive.' In making a break like that you know That your sheet was simply lying: So take your 'scoop' and go below Where those of your kind are frying." In vain did the editor spring a comp. The doorkeeper wouldn't take it. The portal shut with a mighty thump And the editor couldn't shake it. He's gone below where the fakirs fizz In the realms of dire damnation. And even there his contention is: "I've the largest circulation!"

Soviets Want Ike Conference That Will By-Pass Dulles

BY PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Behind all the monkey business and cocktail circuit pronouncements by Nikita Khrushchev in Moscow, it is becoming increasingly apparent that what the Russians would like best is a two-power conference with the U.S.

This is the qualified conclusion of some Russian experts in Washington, after sizing up Red propaganda for a summit meeting. It is believed that the Russians would like to talk to American leaders about a mutual agreement to ban hostile propaganda, a non-aggression pact and a new treaty on U.S.-U.S.S.R. trade relations.

This package is loaded with obvious dynamite. The Russians agreed to stop propaganda and Communist agitation in the United States in the original Roosevelt-Litvinov recognition treaty of 1933. The agreement was promptly broken by the Russians on the pretext that it was the U.S. Communist party which carried on political activities in this country—not the Russian government.

THERE IS NO assurance a new agreement would be kept any better.

There is already a prohibition of aggression in the United Nations charter, signed by both the U.S. and U.S.S.R. What the Russians appear to want now is a non-aggression pact in which the United States would agree to give up all its overseas military bases.

This would be a first step to U.S. suicide. The Russians would also include in non-aggression their proposal to ban the use of all atomic weapons. But they will not agree to stop production and they will not agree to inspection.

The Russian idea of a trade agreement would be one in which they would be permitted to buy anything they wanted in the United States. This would include strategic items which are now banned to them. Today the Russians have little to sell us except furs and a few raw materials which can be bought elsewhere.

SO, ON AN AGENDA of this kind, the United States would have everything to lose and not a thing to gain.

But this clearly reveals why the Russians would like to sit down across a table with the United States to discuss mutual problems and relieve world tensions, as the saying goes.

The Russians don't want a foreign ministers' meeting because they don't want to deal with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. They consider him unwilling to negotiate with them. This is, perhaps, the highest compliment they could pay him.

THE NEW CULTURAL exchange treaty just signed by the United States and Russia is cited as an example of how the Russian idea of a summit meeting first, with diplomats working out details of agreements later would work. The line is that the broad areas of agreement reached at the Geneva summit conference in 1955 made possible negotiation of this cultural exchange program. The inference is that another summit meeting in 1958 or a two-power U.S.-U.S.S.R. conference on broad lines might result in other specific agreements by 1961.

But it is becoming increasingly clear that the Russians have no intentions of talking about the three things the United States wants most. These are unification of Germany, disarmament and greater freedom for the Communist satellite countries.

These were the three main subjects on the agenda for the 1955 summit conference. And there is no assurance any agreements on these subjects could be reached now, at any level.

MR. AND MRS. R. D. FREDE RICK, Jr.

Miss Evelyn Margaret Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Dean of Pleasantville RD 2 became the bride of R. D. Frede Rick, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Frederick of Clarendon, at 2:00 p. m. January 11 in Pleasantville Evangelical United Brethren church.

The Rev. I. G. Hunsberger performed the ceremony before an altar setting of flowers, palms, ferns and double candelabra.

Jean Beck, organist, played traditional wedding selections and accompanied Gordon Atkins, who sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told", "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride was attired in floor length white lace, with white headpiece and veil, and carried an arrangement of mixed white flowers.

As matron of honor, Laura Colvin wore floor length salmon-pink lace; bridesmaids, Linda McFate and Mrs. Mildred Dean, wore blue and yellow lace, respectively. Their accessories included white flower hats and their bouquets were also of white flowers.

Harold Dean, brother of the bride, was best man; ushering were Ardell Dean and C. Lawrence Frederick, brothers of the principals.

The reception followed in the church basement, where aides were Mrs. Chester Dean, Mrs. Earl Burrows, Mrs. Hazel Warner, Mrs. Harold Dean and Mrs. Raymond Johnson.

The newlyweds will live in Warren, where both are employed.

SORORITY CHAPTER

At a special meeting of Epsilon Epsilon Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, held at the home of Mrs. Robert Wheatall, plans were completed for a rummage sale to be held February 13-14 in the basement of the Funley Store. Members are reminded to bring their items for the sale at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Robert Simpson, in charge of the program, gave an interesting talk on art and pictures for the home, showing many illustrations of the latest ideas in arrangement. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Robert Blume.

The Mature Parent

Child Can't Be Blamed if He Copies Parents' Habits

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

FOR Christmas an aunt who's never seen Fred sent him racing skates. They were an impractical gift because, (1) they were too big; and because, (2) Fred's 8-year-old skating ability barely manages to keep him upright on ice.

However, just because the skates implied that he was a 14-year-old ice skating champ, Fred felt an instantaneous, special love for them. So, a couple of days later when he found his older brother trying one on, he fought.

He fought so doggedly that his father had to separate the boys. When Fred tried to kick his brother around his father's leg, he got sharply cuffed—and was told he had forfeited ownership of the skates.

As the weeping Fred retreated, his perspiring father said to his mother, "Whew, that kid sure inherits his old man's temper!"

If we want a child to overcome his bad temper, it is not very intelligent to declare ourselves the victim of ours.

The fact that we confess ourselves to be the possessors of the weaknesses we punish in children does not always mean that we disapprove of the weaknesses. Far more often, we admire them very much.

Fred's father, for example, is actually quite proud of his bad temper. With the greatest satisfaction, he will tell you how useful it is in his business. Just yesterday of a creditor who tried to dun him for a bill, he said, "I told him where to get off, I said, 'Jones, you'll get your money when I'm ready to give it to you. Now get out of this office—or I'll have you thrown out!'"

THOUGH we may pretend to disapprove of our bad temper, our extravagance, or our taste for fattening food, many of us really think we're pretty hot stuff to indulge them. Privately, we feel entitled to these weaknesses.

We may be. The thing is, we'd do well to be honest about it. For the truth is, if we didn't like our bad temper, extravagance and gluttony, we'd get rid of them.

Children know this. And they're quite right to resent punishment for faults we admire in ourselves. Fred's feeling is, "If bad temper is fine for Dad, why isn't it fine for me?"

Though he's not conscious of this feeling now, he may become conscious of it in adolescence—and start putting his contempt for our dishonesty into hurtful, insulting words.

MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND EDWIN ANDERSON

Tiona Methodist church was the setting at 2:30 p. m. January 25 for the marriage of Carol Jeannette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archie M. Huckabee of Tiona, to Raymond Edwin Anderson, son of Albert Anderson, 708 Pennsylvania avenue east, Warren.

Organ and piano music preceded singing of "I Love You Truly," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony by Robert Hulings, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Hulings.

Escorted by her father, the bride's long-sleeved, waltz length gown was designed of white nylon floral-patterned lace over nylon net and taffeta. The bodice had lace accents and the back of the skirt featured four alternating tiers of lace and net in a graceful sweep. A crown held her fingertip veil and her flowers were white carnations atop a white Bible.

Maid of honor was Joan Peterson of Sheffield, in waltz length Dior blue lace over taffeta, with matching lace bolero. A matching lace bandeau formed her headpiece and her bouquet was of pale pink carnations.

Arthur Anderson, Pleasant township, was best man for his brother; ushering were another brother, Russell A. Anderson of Kinzua, and Walter R. Smith, Tiona.

Wearing pink striped carnations, Mrs. Huckabee and the bridegroom's aunt, Pauline Anderson of Ludlow, chose black ensembles.

The reception followed in the church parlors, where bouquets decorated the bridal table and a four-tier cake graced a buffet table. Pouring were the bride-

Scuttle Chapping With Bath Oils and Lotions

Make Skin Care A Winter Habit

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

KEEPING skin smooth and satiny in cold weather is no tiny chore. Steam heat, windy lays, snow and rain plus frequent temperature changes all end to turn the skin red, rough and raw.

Constant care of the skin is the only way to ward off chapping. The evening bath, for instance, should include plenty of bath oil. You'll need a night cream for face and neck and a hand and body lotion for use all over as you step out of the bath tub. The ideal lotion is one that our skin will absorb quickly. It should have pleasant fragrance as well as an immediate smoothing effect.

Use it lavishly. Knees and elbows roughen readily in cold weather and legs, too, can take in a red, chapped look. So head-to-toe protection is essential while the winter months last.

Bath time is the best time for using the lotion, but if you take a quick shower in the morning, use the lotion then, too.

This is the time of year to make lavish use of hand and body lotion to banish rough skin. This girl uses it on arms and elbows as well as hands.

Annual Meeting and Elections Held By Moriah Lutheran Congregation

LUDLOW—Moriah Lutheran church is getting its affairs for 1958 off to a fine start, with the annual meeting, reports, elections and reorganization of boards.

Pastor Carl Eliason conducted the annual parish meeting and gave a fine report of the year's accomplishments: treasurer's reports for all organizations were given by Leland Engman; financial report by Mrs. Carl L. Swanson was read by E. Wilbur Johnson. Members voted a congregational supper for next year's meeting. Officers elected included: Deacons—Gustav Olson and Leroy Johnson; trustees—Lawrence Larson and Alfred Johnson; recording secretary, Mabel Peterson; financial secretary, Mrs. Carl L. Swanson; organist, Mrs. Ed Wenstran; assistant, Mrs. Enoch Nelson; choir director, Mrs. Emil Nelson; janitor, Carl Benson.

Auditor, William A. Hanson; Sunday school superintendent, Edith Larson; assistant, Gustav Olson; primary department, Mrs. Carl Benson; assistant, Mrs. Evert Johnson; District delegate, Mrs. Frank Nelson; Conference delegate, Enoch O. Nelson; nominating committee, C. H. Hanson, Adolph Johnson and Mrs. Homer Gilfert; ushers, Wilbur Johnson, head usher, with Gust E. Anderson, Herbert Anderson, Alfred Johnson, Homer Gilfert, Lawrence Larson, E. O. Nelson and John Gilfert.

For the referendum on church synods, 40 favored a convention every other year.

At the reorganizational meeting, discussion concerned work for the year, when emphasis

EVELYN RUPERT

Missionary on furlough from Ruanda-Urundi, Belgian Congo, will discuss "Bright Spots in Dark Africa" at the Free Methodist church in Sheffield at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, and the public is cordially invited to hear her presentation.

Miss Rupert is a graduate of Clarion State Teachers' College and did graduate work at University of Brussels in Belgium. Her program will present the clash of cultures current in Africa in such manner that it will contribute greatly to the public's better understanding of the social unrest on that continent.

FREE METHODIST CHURCH SCHEDULE

Tuesday—WMS will hold an all-day meeting at the parsonage, 135 Conewango avenue, each one to bring her sewing kit and lunch. All are reminded of the clothing, particularly men's wear, to be sent to Olive Branch Mission in Chicago, Ill. There will also be a Prayer Circle during the afternoon, and all who desire transportation may call 2256-J.

Wednesday—7:30, prayer and praise meeting to be held at the church.

Thursday—7:00, Christian Youth Crusaders will meet in the Sunday school rooms. This group is under the leadership of Charles W. Lyon and is fast becoming one of the most active units in the denomination.

Saturday—7:00, Sunday school board meeting, postponed from last Saturday, will meet at the church and all are asked to be present; 8:00, Free Methodist young people are invited to attend the Youth for Christ meeting at Bethel EUB church, when a revival tent will have charge of the service.

GRACE CHURCH EVENTS

Monday—6:15 father and son banquet will feature Magician Sherman Epler; 7:00 Girl and Boy Scout meetings; 7:45, Circle meetings: Mary Harwood with Mrs. A. M. McDannel at Venturietown, each one to bring a towel, etc., for Lake Bluff Children's Home; Elita Devine with Mrs. Grace Johnson, 7 Prospect street; members bringing needles and thread; Martha Graf with Mrs. Florence Anderson, 5 North Irvine street, also a sewing bee.

Tuesday—7:45, Elsie Ross Society will meet in the Winger Room.

Wednesday—7:00, Senior Choir rehearsal; 7:30, Bible study and prayer service; 8:30, official board meeting.

Thursday—1:45, Ora Hooper Circle will meet with Mrs. Norman Johnson, 1408 Pennsylvania avenue, east, members to bring used clothing for the Rouse Home; 7:45, Truthseekers Class will meet in the Winger Room, when Mrs. S. H. Adams will speak on "The Care of African Violets".

Attention is called to the World Day of Prayer service at First Baptist church at 2:00 p. m. February 21, when the theme will be "The Bread of Life".

It is also announced the annual Week of Dedication Offering will be received Sunday, February 23, to provide scholarships for exchange students and help build churches in strategic areas of the world.

FOE AUXILIARY

Holding their regular meeting in the clubrooms, FOE Auxiliary members made plans for Past Presidents' Night on Tuesday, February 18, when all past presidents of the unit are asked to be on hand. Each member attending is asked to bring either sandwiches or cookies to be served after the meeting, the coffee to be provided.

Margaret Gaughan's name was drawn for the attendance award, but she was not present. It was announced a special meeting will be held at Bradford at 2:00 p. m. Sunday, February 16, and reservations must be made no later than Thursday evening of this week by calling 2654.

Members were also reminded their next regular meeting will be held February 18, in conjunction with the Past Presidents' Night, and members of the Memorial Drill Team are advised they will have a practice session immediately following that session.

SPECIAL RALLY FOR YOUTH FOR CHRIST

The popular Youth for Christ speaker, the Rev. Floyd Ankerberg, regional director from Philadelphia, will address the special rally to be held in Bethel EUB church of Warren at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday.

A musical treat will also be provided by Mel Johnson, of Chicago, Ill., and the program committee feels it has been able to provide a real treat for Warren county young people by securing these two youth leaders.

LEGION AUXILIARY

The program for the meeting of American Legion Auxiliary at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday in the Legion Home will be "Americanism". Tickets are on sale for the Washington's Birthday dinner to be held Saturday, February 22.

CIRCLE MEETING

Thomasine Allen Circle of First Baptist church will meet at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Pearl Kabelein, 239 Pennsylvania avenue, west, apartment six, over the A & P store.

IT CLASS MEETING

Members of the IT Class of Epworth Methodist church will hold their regular meeting in the church parlors at 8:00 p. m. Tuesday.

ROMAINE ERICSSON

wife of Dr. Francis Ericsson, 2 Beaty Court, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Meacham, 12 Crescent Park, will be one of the soloists heard next Sunday afternoon in First Presbyterian church, when Director Carroll A. Fowler presents portions of Mendelssohn's "Elijah" by a community chorus. Mrs. Ericsson has long occupied a prominent position in Warren's musical world, is heard frequently on club and public programs and is soprano soloist in Trinity Memorial church choir.

Gathered From The Party Line

Neighbors and other friends of Mrs. Marcus Larsen, 705 West Fifth, avenue, will be pleased to learn that she is improving satisfactorily from surgery resulting from a fall at her home. She has been removed to the Barley Nursing Home at Venturietown for further convalescence.

Mrs. Ethel Dilling, 311 Hazel street, has left for Sarasota, Fla., to visit her brother, now residing in that community. A sister, Mrs. Bertha Reinhardt, Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Edna Starner, North Hollywood, Calif., will be in Sarasota, also, and all expect to visit a number of friends in other parts of Florida.

Among those who will be enjoying a southern vacation in mid-winter are Councilman and Mrs. Paul W. Yagge, 20 North Irvine street, who have left for Delray Beach, Fla.

Warren relatives of Frank Iogha, talented pianist who played here for a Philomel Club recital on November 10, have received word from him that March 16 is the date set for his concert in Town Hall in New York.

William J. Hoffman has returned to his home, 211 North South street, after undergoing surgery at the hospital, and will be pleased to have callers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Ingram, of Beaver Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McConnell, of Cleveland, were weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McConnell, Market street.

EXTENSION MEETING

The Chadders Valley Home Extension Group meeting on easier ironing will be held Tuesday at 10:00 a. m. at the community house. All attending are asked to bring a sprinkled shirt for ironing, also a sack lunch for the nontime meal. The coffee will be provided.

PHC INSTALLATION

Following a tureen supper at 6:00 p. m. Thursday, PHC members will convene their business session at 7:00 for installation of officers. A social time will round out the evening.

PRE-SCHOOL GROUP

The February meeting of Pre-School Guidance Group will be held in the YWCA activities building instead of at Cancer Center, as was previously announced. All attending the Tuesday evening session are reminded to bring scissors for making cancer dressings.

GRANGE GROUP

The Home Extension Group of Warren Grange No. 1025 will meet in the Grange Hall at 11:00 a. m. Tuesday and each is reminded to bring a sack lunch.

LADIES' NIGHT AT THE CONEWANGO CLUB

Conewango Club members have planned an unusually entertaining program for the Ladies' Night on Saturday, February 15, when dinner will be served at 7:30 o'clock and the program will feature the Liquidaires from Pittsburgh in both vocal and instrumental music. Dinner reservations must be made no later than Wednesday of this week by those planning attendance.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK @ — If you can trust the feminine intuition and business judgment of one of America's top women bankers, the present recession will be short-lived.

"I'd rather call it a pause, anyway, than a recession," said Mrs. Mary Roebing, president of the Trenton Trust Co., in Trenton, N.J.

"Any country with the great resources we have—and the ability of its leaders—certainly will not permit a continuation of this present pause in its expansion.

"In the long pull, we are still the greatest nation in the world."

A firm optimism and faith in a growing future are part of the life credo of this sprightly 52-year-old widow, who thinks she is no less feminine because she can handle the details of a five-million-dollar bank loan as well as baste a roast or decorate her apartment.

"Sometimes I think an angel sits on my shoulder," she said. "The Lord has been good to me."

Mrs. Roebing started her business career at 20 in the statistical department of a Philadelphia brokerage firm. Soon she was selling securities herself.

When her husband—wealthy Siegfried Roebing, member of the family that built its BROOKLYN Bridge—died in 1935, she took his place as a member of the board of the Trenton Trust Co. Two years later she was elected president.

The bank then had assets of 17 million dollars. Today it has 70 million in assets, and has climbed to a rank among the top 350 of the nation's 14,700 banks.

Mrs. Roebing, who also is a director or trustee of 18 other corporations, was named in a recent magazine article as one of America's 10 wealthiest women. She is reported to have an income of about a million dollars a year.

She prefers, however, to keep her financial affairs to herself, except to remark dryly, "I balance my own checkbook."

An attractive redhead with greenish-blue eyes, Mrs. Roebing dresses chicly. This year she was picked by the Guild of Professional Beauticians as one of the country's "10 best-dressed" women, an honor that amused rather than overwhelmed her.

Some 65 per cent of the employees in her bank are women, but Mrs. Roebing says this figure only reflects a growing trend in the financial world.

"An increasing number of women are going into banking," she said, "because of the pleasant working conditions, the associations it brings, and because they are pre-eminently qualified for it."

"Women have the rarest commodity in the world, and one of the most valuable—common sense. I wouldn't say that men don't have it, too, but they certainly don't have a corner on the market."

Mrs. Roebing, who reared two children, says the frustrated career woman is largely a myth. "The career women I know don't feel defeated by life," she remarked. "Most of them are happy, and have happy homes. The two-paycheck family has become fashionable now."

Four times a grandmother, she keeps up a social schedule that would wear down a college coed. She likes to dance, spends as many as five nights a week attending public dinners, parties, theaters and musical concerts. She reads herself to sleep and right now is reading three books concurrently—ranging from a tome on economics to "The Loves of Voltaire."

Mrs. Roebing is no ardent feminist, since she feels women are under no real handicap in business life today.

Women millionaires, like men millionaires, have their own success formulas, and when they get on this subject there is absolutely no sex difference between them.

Here, for example, is Mrs. Roebing's recipe for getting ahead:

"Hard work."

Marlow Looks At TODAY'S NEWS

By JAMES MARLOW (AP News Analyst)

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst Washington (AP) Still no answer to the question: Who decides a president is disabled when he can't or won't decide himself? Congress may do again this year what it has always done before: nothing.

The Constitution simply says that if a president can't perform his duties, they shall "devolve on the vice president."

Congress and constitutional lawyers have argued the problem for years. Should the President decide if he is disabled, or the vice president, or some kind of commission?

No president in history, no matter how ill, has stepped aside even temporarily for his vice president. The word "temporarily" raises still another question.

Suppose a disabled president turns his duties over to the vice president, then recovers and wants to resume the presidency but the vice president won't turn the job back to him.

Is a commission the answer? But what kind of commission? Members of the President's Cabinet? The Supreme Court? Doctors? Members of Congress? Or members from all three branches of government?

This year a forward step—if it can be called that—was taken in Congress. Key Democrats and Republicans in the House agreed on this:

A commission should be created to decide presidential disability. Its members: the vice president, secretary of state, speaker of the House, president pro tempore of the Senate, and the Democratic and Republican leaders from House and Senate. Total: eight.

But the vice president, speaker and president pro tempore should have no vote. Thus only the secretary of state and the Democratic and Republican leaders of House and Senate could vote, or a total of five.

And the same group could decide when a president was no longer disabled and was fit to resume office. But this may never get to a full House vote. Even if approved there, the Senate may pass it over.

High School Notes

The Spot will be open from 7:30 to 9:30 this evening.

OBITUARIES

FUNERAL INFORMATION WILL BE FOUND UNDER ANOTHER HEADING

MRS. MARY BLACK
Corydon — Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Black, who formerly resided in Corydon for many years, were held Sunday afternoon in Corydon Church of the Nazarene, with the Rev. Viola Burch officiating. Interment followed in Riverview cemetery here.
Mrs. Black, aged 89, died last Wednesday in the Lockwood Nursing Home in Salamanca, N. Y., after an illness of several weeks. She was born in Steubenville, O., a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coulter, and was a frequent visitor here at the home of her son, George Black. Also surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Florence Smith, of Salamanca, with whom she made her home; and several grandchildren.

BERNICE E. LOETERS
Mrs. Bernice Ethel Loeters, 71 year old resident of Kinzua, died early Saturday morning while en route by ambulance to Warren General Hospital. She had been in failing health for some time.
Born in Tioga, Pa. November 22, 1887, she had been a resident of Kinzua for the past 35 years. The widow of Camiel Loeters, who died a number of years ago, she leaves one daughter, Mrs. Louis VanBuskirk, San Diego, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Lindly Hughes, Kinzua.

The Rev. William Hills pastor of Kinzua Methodist church, will conduct services in a local funeral home at 10:00 a. m. Tuesday, with interment following in Kinzua cemetery.

KAREN E. KRAFT
Karen Elizabeth Kraft infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Kraft, 10 Conewago avenue, Russell, died suddenly at the family home at 8:30 a. m. Saturday at the age of 18 months.

Born in Warren on July 27, 1956, the child leaves her parents, Robert A. and Patricia Ann Kraft, and two brothers Timothy and Gerald, aged six and four, respectively; her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Kraft, Sugar Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Graebner, Warren; also two great-grandfathers and a great-aunt.
Pastor Carl Nelson of St. Paul's Lutheran church, will conduct services at a local funeral home at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday, with interment following in Pine Grove cemetery at Russell.

MRS. W. M. LOUCKS
Mrs. Leora A. Loucks, wife of William M. Loucks of 882 Washington street, Jamestown, and step-mother of Mrs. Charlotte Rossmann of Warren, died in Jamestown General Hospital at 8:35 a. m. Sunday at the age of 64 years. Born in McKean county, the daughter of William M. and Addie Walters Cook, she had lived in Jamestown for the past 26 years. She was a member of St. Luke's Episcopal church and Women of the Moose.

Besides her husband and step-daughter, she leaves two sons, Allison B. Russell, Frewsburg, and Claude A. Russell, of Jamestown; another step-daughter and four step-sons, Roxana Russell, Warren A. GARDNER M. THORPE
Gardner M. Thorpe 76 year old resident of 408 Lafayette street, Jamestown, died in Jamestown General Hospital at 11:25 a. m. Saturday.

Born in Stedman, N. Y. September 28, 1881, the son of James A. and Mary Walsh Thorpe, he lived in Sugar Grove before moving to Jamestown about 27 years ago. He had operated a tinshop in Rose Alley for more than 30 years.

He had been a member of Grace Methodist church since 1922, had served as choir director, Sunday school superintendent, and delegate to the Erie Conference annual sessions. He had held several Conference offices, including that of president of the Laymen's Association. He was a member of Conference Council of Administration and Board of Evangelism, and had been elected delegate to the General Council of the EUB Church.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Z. Z. Chandler, and two brothers, Ernest H. and Clyde Thorpe, all of Sugar Grove; several nieces and nephews. His wife, Mary Weldon Thorpe, died September 25, 1956.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday at Sugar Grove Methodist church, conducted by the Rev. Keith Perry of Grace EUB church in Jamestown, assisted by the Rev. Pomeroy, of Rixford. Interment will follow in Cherry Hill cemetery, Sugar Grove.

JUDGE HUGH BODINE
Jamestown Sun: Former Chautauqua County Judge and Surrogate Hugh V. N. Bodine, 71, collapsed and died at his home, 222 Arlington Ave., at 12:30 p. m. Saturday.

Judge Bodine, dean of county jurists and a 13-year veteran on the bench, was the second prominent member of the legal profession in this county to die within two weeks. George Washington Jude, 90, of Jamestown oldest practicing attorney in Western New York, died Jan. 26, 1958.

Oddly both Judge Bodine and Mr. Jude were born on the same day as great Presidents of the United States. Judge Bodine was born on Lincoln's birthday, Feb. 12, 1886, in Lodi, N. Y., and Mr. Jude was born on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, 1867. Judge Bodine was the son of Joseph and Maria Bodine.

He was a member of the First Congregational Church, and a former member of the church choir. At one time he was president of the church board. Judge Bodine served as Chautauqua County judge and surrogate for 13 years, succeeding Judge Lee Ottaway, who is now a New York State Supreme Court justice.

MERLE GILLSON
Word was received here over the weekend that Merle Gillson, formerly of Sheffield, died Thursday evening in Carnegie, Pa., and the body would be brought here for interment in Oakland cemetery.

Surviving besides his brother, Dan, are his wife, Margaret; a son, Robert, of Montclair, N. J.; four grandchildren; a brother, George, in Reading; two sisters, Mrs. Paul D. Womeldorf, Oklahoma City, and Mrs. Arthur Harman of Plymouth, Pa.
Dan Walton will attend services Tuesday in Berwick.

LEROY B. HARMAN
The Rev. William Hills, pastor of Kinzua Methodist church, officiated at 2:30 p. m. Friday for the funeral of Leroy B. Harman, 232 North Carver street, Warren. The rites were held at Washington church in Lickingville and interment was made in Deener cemetery, Clarion county, with the following members of Warren Lodge No. 339, IOOF, serving as bearers: Ray Farnsworth, William Sizle, Fred Lauffenberger, Emil Johnson, Clyde Hudson and Howard Kinkadee.

IN MEMORIAM
LAWHEAD
In loving memory of Clair Lawhead who passed away 3 years ago today, Feb. 10:

A precious one is from us gone. A voice we loved is stilled. A place is vacant in our house. Which never can be filled. Some may think you are forgotten. Though on earth you are no more.

But in memory you are with us As you always were before. Sadly missed by his wife, son and daughter.

It is specifically requested that flowers be omitted and, in lieu of such gifts, friends wishing to remember Msgr. Macken may contribute to a Memorial Fund, in care of Howard R. Thompson at St. Clara's rectory.

New Civil Rights

The attorney general could obtain injunctions against violations of civil rights generally, would revise in somewhat altered form a section struck by the Senate last year from the administration's civil rights measure.

The Civil Rights Act passed by Congress at the last session, the first to be enacted since the end of Reconstruction era, limited the use of this injunctive process to the protecting of voting rights.

Atty. Gen. Rogers said that if Congress were to pass this year the provisions it knocked from the bill last year, he would recommend that President Eisenhower sign the new measure.

He added in a television interview that the administration would not request such action. Rogers had said earlier that he would recommend no new administration proposals on civil rights this year. He and other officials have suggested that a "cooling off" period was in order.

Union Considers

Two months ago on grounds of corrupt leadership.

Hoffa, now at the trucker union helm although one of those under criticism, was reported aiming at adapting a series of reforms looking toward re-entry into the federation.

George Meany, AFL-CIO president, has made it clear, however, that Hoffa himself must forsake any top Teamsters post before the union will be taken back into the main body of organized labor.

Hoffa apparently hasn't the slightest idea of quitting.
Beck sold the Seattle home he now occupies to the Teamsters for $153,000 under a deal under which he continued to live in it rent and tax free at union expense. There was Senate committee testimony that union funds were used in part to build the home in the first place.

It was also testified that Beck got the Teamsters to buy the home because he needed funds to pay some he owed the union. Beck said he borrowed more than $300,000 from the Teamsters.

Chairman McClellan (D-Ark) said the money was stolen and Beck was trying to cover up.

Chandlers Valley

Bob Anstadt presented certificates of appreciation to Leo Rapp, Paul Grosch and Jim Palmer, leaders of the local Scouts at the Jamboree last summer.

A dramatization demonstrating the need for a safety good turn was produced by Explorers of Post 13. Following this, Dr. Wm. L. Ball, Health and Safety Chairman distributed plaques to units to record participation in the Safety Good Turn. Units which conduct projects in traffic safety, outdoor safety, and home safety will receive seals to affix on the plaques, he stated.

William Muir, Activities Chairman of the Council presided. (See picture on Page Seven of this issue).

New Rules

consummated by executive order — gave Pennsylvania specific fines and penalties for a wide range of moving violations.
The law provides that vehicles traveling in either direction of a two or three-lane highway must stop when a school bus is loading or discharging passengers. Vehicles traveling on a four-lane divided highway must stop when overtaking a stopped school bus, while vehicles approaching in the opposite lane must slow to 15 m.p.h.

BAIR FAMILY STILL NEEDS HELPING HAND
Furniture, bedding, dishes, etc., are still needed for the Eugene Bair family, left destitute of clothing and home when their farm dwelling on Stanton Hill road was destroyed by fire a week ago Sunday, but it is learned today a store-room owned by Gerald Mat-tison in Russell has been offered for storage of articles collected until the family has located living quarters. Anyone having articles for the family may call Roy Martin, Plateau 7-8126, if they wish collections made. In the meantime, the Bair family is still attempting to find a home and will appreciate a call to 426-R if anyone has such quarters to offer owned by Gerald Mated at hospitals after a spate of collisions. At 3:30 p. m. Saturday on Bush-Sugar Grove road, eight persons were injured, six of them from Youngsville.

Melinda Lyford, 17, of Sugar Grove, driver of one of the cars which collided in a blinding snow squall, was most severely injured. She was taken to Jamestown General Hospital in "fair" condition and treated for a fractured right leg, fractured nose, scalp, chin and body cuts.

Her sister, Mary Lyford, 9, is reported in "good" condition, with tongue cuts, leg bruises and a chest injury.
Six occupants of the other car, all Youngsville residents, were treated and dismissed. They were: Oanile Gentile, 40, the driver, left knee bruises; Cormina Gentile, 36, knee and leg bruises; Eva Gentile, 44, cuts and leg bruises; Albert Gentile, 40, leg bruises; Assunta Gentile, 75, bruised right knee and chest; Amelia Luvison, 53, left eyebrow cut.

New York State schools were closed at Chautauqua, Cassadaga, Bemus Point, Mayville.

One luckless New York State driver took a friend home late Saturday night, then became stuck in a deep ditch after driving about three miles on a back road. He stayed marooned in his car in the Frewsburg area until about noon Sunday when a plow found him. The gasoline supply had become exhausted about an hour earlier. Out of sight 300 yards away was a warm farmhouse. He was chilled but uninjured. His wife sent the plow out to look for him when he failed to appear.

French Raid

was to wipe out an anti-aircraft emplacement that had damaged a French plane. The attack was only against military objectives.

They claimed, adding that aerial photographs showed that nine tenths of the village remained intact.

Nehi Ladgham, Tunisian state secretary, said at a funeral for 58 of the victims that schools and homes had been bombed. Goesta Heuman, a Swedish Red Cross official who watched from the town's outskirts as the 25 French warplanes bombed and strafed for an hour, said, "I will never forget the horrible sight of Sadiet. Women and children lay dead and bleeding."

The attack came at the height of the market hour while the streets and market squares were crowded.

American and British officials were openly fearful that the French action had been a serious new blow to the Western position in the Arab world.

Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba, regarded in Washington and London as heretofore a good friend of the West, demanded that the French immediately withdraw the 20,000 troops that remained in Tunisia after the protectorate gained independence from France in 1955. He also demanded that the French give up the big naval base at Bizerte, a vital NATO position.

Tunisian National Guard troops took up station around all French military posts in Tunisia and French military vehicles were banned from all roads.

Van Zandt Waiting Only for Go Sign From State Chiefs

ALTOONA, Pa. — Rep. James E. Van Zandt (R-Pa.) says he'll be in the battle for the party choice to run for U.S. Senator just as soon as he gets the go-ahead from the state GOP leadership.

Van Zandt yesterday assailed what he termed malicious rumors that he was not interested in running for the senate.

"Apparently," he said in a statement, "the people circulating this rumor don't know me very well. I've never backed away from a fight before, and I'm not going to start now. If the party wants me, I'm ready to start campaigning right now."

Van Zandt said he would confer with the state GOP leadership "in the immediate future" to resolve this question.

Boy Scouts, on 48th Birthday, Begin National Safety Good Turn

FOR GOD AND MY COUNTRY
48th ANNIVERSARY 1958
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA
OFFICIAL BOY SCOUT WEEK POSTER

More than 4,700,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and adult leaders throughout the nation will observe Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13, marking the 48th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

Boy Scout Week sees the launching of a yearlong Safety Good Turn suggested by President Eisenhower, Honorary President of the Boy Scouts of America.

In cooperation with other organizations giving leadership in safety, the Scouts will promote traffic safety in March, April and May; outdoor safety in June, July, and August; and home safety in September, October, and November.

Dragons Push Corry Beavers Little Deeper Into Cellar

Warren's fast-breaking Dragons, paced by the sharpshooting of Dynamo Jack Karkosky and ball-hawking Nicky Creola with 24 and 20 points respectively, pushed Corry's Beavers deeper into the Section 2 cellar Friday night with an 81-57 victory before a fine crowd at Beatty gym.

The slick ball-stealing of the Dragons along with fine defensive board control by Nick Monroe and Bill Mervine, wrecked any hopes the Beavers entertained of upsetting the local carvers. Karkosky and Creola performed magnificently in leading the Dragons to their 12th triumph of the season. They stole passes, set, drove and tumbled for most of their 24 and 20 point outputs. Bill Brumagum chipped in with seven markers, five of them coming in the first quarter when Warren jumped off to a nice 20-11 lead. He was forced to the bench when he incurred his fourth personal early in the contest. Nick Monroe, besides playing a bang-up board game, executed the play of the game when he maneuvered brilliantly to score on a missed field goal attempt by one of his teammates. Bill Mervine, still improving, covered the defensive board in excellent fashion. Bob Ferg, although seeing limited action, scored six quick points to add to the Warren total.

In achieving their second win over the Beavers this season, the Dragons moved nicely in escaping the Corry pressing defense which caused Meadville no end of trouble. "Vic" Cragg, Corry center, insisted on staying with his all-court press despite the ease with which the Dragons were scoring and the numerous fouls committed by his players. There wasn't any comparison between the showing of the Dragons Friday night and the club that lost to Meadville. Cragg stated that the Dragons had "too much speed and finesse for us, but I stayed with the all-court press because we did so well with it against both Oil City and Meadville."

Excessive fouling tended to slow the game. However, Warren displayed unerring accuracy from the charity stripe by sinking 33 of 44 attempts for an excellent 74 percent. Corry shot 11 for 23.

Tomorrow night on the Beatty hardwood, the Bradford Owls, a formidable aggregation, will provide the opposition. The contest shapes up as a stellar attraction in view of the fact that Warren upset the Owls earlier in the season by a 37-31 margin in a hectic game. The Owls took the measure of Jamestown last week 52-52. On Friday the

East Forest Scores Over Pleasantville

Dave Gedig scorched the nets with 30 points to lead East Forest to a victory over Pleasantville 65-25 Friday night. East Forest played a hard game to show superiority in all quarters. Gedig got 10 of his 30 points in the first quarter when the Easterners ran up a 24-7 score and were off and running. Mortimer walked far behind Gedig with 12, Reninger adding 11 more for the winners. Hartle paced the losers with 9.

SECTION I AND ERIE RACES HOT

Morning News: East and Academy combined forces to keep both the City Series and Section I races alive Friday night at the Auditorium. After the Warriors used Charley Fisher's one-hander with only three seconds left to take a 63-62 cliffhanger over Tech in the opener, Academy—playing like champions themselves—upset Strong Vincent 50-43, in the nightcap. So instead of Vincent coming away with at least one of the two titles, they find only a half game separating them from Section—place East in the City Series fight.

CARBURETOR SAVES GAS BY "JET-ING"

Car owners who are wasting money and not getting proper gas mileage due to over-rich mixtures will be pleased to learn of a Wisconsin inventor who has developed a very clever unit that saves gasoline by adding small jets of air to automatically lean and "Vacu-mat" improperly adjusted carburetor mixtures. Easily installed on cars, trucks and tractors, The manufacturers, the Vacu-matic Carburetor Co., 7617-70 W. State, Wauwatosa, Wis., are offering a Vacuumator to anyone who will install it on his car and help introduce it to others. They will gladly send full free particulars if you write them or send your name and address on a post card today.

League-leading high flying Titusville Rockets pulled a 57-46 victory over the eyes of Meadville on the Bulldogs' home floor Friday night to send the Rockets off their launching platform to first place in Section II. Just two weeks ago, Meadville found defeat at the powerful hands of Titusville.

The victory made an impressive 6-1 record for Titusville and dropped the Bulldogs to second and a 5-2 mark. The Rockets grabbed a 13-9 lead after the first period but Eubanks' hot hand put the Bulldogs into a halftime lead of 26-22.

In the final stanza, the Rockets' roar was loud as their 39-26 edge. An 18-11 fourth period score in favor of Titusville told the story.

Allen loose on the nets for Titusville racked up 15 with Benson dialing 13 to the grand total Eubanks found the net for 20 pacing the losers.

WEST DIV. GAMES
Guard's powerful legions ran rampant over West Springfield Friday night to register its seventh straight Western Division win by an 80-36 count. The victory was the Jackets' 13th in 18 starts.

Other West games saw Edinboro smash Fairview 82-38 and Albion rally to drop McKean 67-54.

Eagles Still Undeclared In League

Youngsville Eagles, pace setters in the Upper Allegheny Valley League, remained undeclared as they outbucketed Tidioute Friday night 68-38. Dick Praetzel's Eagles closest competitors, East Forest, defeated Pleasantville 65-25.

Jun McMeans led Youngsville to outscore the losers in every quarter except the third when identical scores were dialed. This marked the high-flying Eagles' sixth straight league win.

Following behind McMeans was Moniak with 12. Morrison was high for Tidioute sinking 13. Ten Youngsville players participated in the scoring action.

Gerarde Not Turning Pro for Long Time, Manager Says

From Gerarde's Headquarters
YMCA, Pittsburgh
Joe Fazio sadly announced late last night that a disappointing circumstance arose yesterday at fight headquarters. A young seventeen-year-old lad, (name presently unknown), who was middleweight champ last year, turned light-heavyweight this year and entered the Gloves as same, bringing along with him, his reputation as a "tough boy". When other fighters in the light-heavyweight division heard of him, they dropped out leaving only Rocky Gerarde and himself as contenders for the crown. Unless more boys enter this division by Tuesday, Rocky will be without an opponent and will not fight in the tournament until February 17, date of the finals, and will then take on the 57 champ. If no opponent is found, Fazio and Gerarde will return to Warren sometime Wednesday and wait for the finals.

Fazio reluctantly reported that a professional fighter saw Rocky Gerarde during weigh-ins yesterday at GG headquarters, and remarked, "That boy looks in good shape," and further expressed his desires to have Rock turn pro. Fazio again replied in answer to this statement, "He isn't going to turn pro for a long time yet."

Joe explained that if a fighter goes up too fast, he's bound to meet someone tough who'll "knock the stuffing out of him" and finish up what started out to be a promising career.

To help pass the tension-filled time until more definite information is forwarded to Gerarde, Dave Brown, a heavy-weighter from Meadville, has agreed to spar with Rock today. Brown just returned from Philadelphia where he has been a sparring partner with Harold Johnson Brown and company is also staying at the Y on Wood Street with Warren's enty.

Over 200 boxers have registered for the tournament with eliminations slated to start this evening at 8 p. m.

Fazio reported road conditions were fair, but said they ran into a bad snow storm in Franklin where visibility was cut down to almost zero. Leaving Warren at 11:15 Sunday morning, the mitt artist and manager arrived at their long-awaited destination at 3 p. m. A pre-trip professional rub-down was given Gerarde by Ray Nichols.

Major college basketball given a lift by the three-way scrap for the individual scoring title, plops deeper into the now-or-never stage this week in the run for conference championships and postseason tournament berths.

Cincinnati's Bearcats figure in both angles in a pair of games. Oscar Robertson is bidding to overhaul leader Elgin Baylor of Seattle in return bouts with Bradley and Oklahoma State.

The Bearcats, whose only defeats in 18 games came at Bradley and Oklahoma State, get the home break in these two. A victory over Bradley Wednesday would go a long way toward clinching the Missouri Valley Conference title and an automatic NCAA Tournament berth. Cincinnati is 8-1 in conference play.

Bradley, 6-1 in the Mo-Valley and 13-4 over-all after Saturday's 64-52 defeat at Oklahoma State, Oil City figures to defend its NIT crown if it places second in the conference race.

Oklahoma State is a nonleague foe, shooting for an at-large tournament spot. Neither game figures to be an easy-scoring night for Oscar, particularly the Saturday meeting with Oklahoma State's ball-control bunch.

Oscar warmed up with 43 Saturday as Cincinnati whipped St. Joseph's 100-78 at Philadelphia. That gave him 593 points in 18 games and a 32.94 average.

Baylor counted 46 in a 107-71 Seattle breeze past Gonzaga, upping his average to 33.72 on 607 points in 18 games.

All America Wilt Chamberlain stayed a close third notching 46 points, a Big Eight record, as Kansas walloped Nebraska 102-46. Walt is averaging 32.86 with 460 points in 14 games.

Baylor has just one game this week, against Regis Thursday. Chamberlain shoots against Colorado tonight and Iowa State Saturday.

In other conference races, Rice hustled back into the Southwest title picture by upsetting first-place Arkansas 54-46. Southern Methodist pulled into a second-place tie with Rice, a half-game behind Arkansas, by eliminating Texas Christian 84-67. SMU is at Arkansas tomorrow night.

The Big Ten continued its hectic pattern with Michigan jumping back into first place on an 88-81 victory over Illinois while Indiana was dumping Michigan State out of the top spot 82-79 and Purdue was bouncing Ohio State 53-63. Michigan is at Minnesota tonight, and could have trouble.

In the Pacific Coast, California regained a share of the top with UCLA by beating the Uclans 61-58. Kentucky is 8-1 in the Southeastern after whipping Mississippi 96-65.

Top-ranked West Virginia is unbeaten atop the Southern Conference after defeating Richmond 72-60 and can clinch the regular-season pennant by beating William & Mary tonight with Virginia Military Wednesday.

The Atlantic Coast Conference follows the same formula, with Duke coming along fast as a dark horse bet. The Blue Devils made NCAA champ and seventh-ranked North Carolina their seventh consecutive victim, 91-75.

Crippled Celtics Drop Another to Syracuse

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
That 14 game winning streak the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Assn. ran off at the beginning of the season is standing them in good stead now—probably good enough to give them the eastern division title even though they have only six on the long haul. Tom Heinsohn is the latest casualty, joining Bill Sharman and Frank Ramsey who have had injuries. Heinsohn was sent home Saturday night with an apparent case of food poisoning after the Celtics beat the Cincinnati Royals 100-91 in Rochester.

The toll began to tell yesterday as Syracuse rolled up an easy 123-93 victory with the Celtics benching Bob Cousy and Bill Russell when the Nats moved far ahead.

Philadelphia beat St. Louis 160-98, New York knocked over Detroit 100-98 and Cincinnati defeated Minneapolis 121-101 in other Sunday action.

North Area Defeats West Forest 70-35

Not to be outdone by league-leading Youngsville, Northern Area Knights pulled a much-needed victory over West Forest Friday night 70-35 to place on third UAV league standings.

The Knights showed its superiority in every quarter. Rowland found the range for 13 points and Northern Area picked up a 26-8 lead going into the second quarter which widened with each ensuing quarter.

NEW YORK (AP)—From the Roman Catholic Church to an agnostic lawyer to Protestant Episcopal bishop of California seems a strange and tortuous trail.

It's the one followed by the Very Rev. James Albert Pike, currently dean of New York's Episcopal Cathedral of St. John the Divine, the third largest cathedral in the world.

Dean Pike this week accepted nomination to become bishop of California when present Bishop Karl Morgan Block retires next December. It's a big step for a 44-year-old man who completed his religious training only 12 years ago.

The bishop-to-be was raised a Roman Catholic in California. He attended Santa Clara University, a West Coast Jesuit school. He had inclinations toward the priesthood.

At the end of his second college year, he transferred to the University of California at Los Angeles and changed his vocational aims to law. Religiously, he became what he describes as a "humanist agnostic."

"I threw out the baby with the bath water," he tells interviewers. Pursuit of a law career led him through the University of Southern California and Yale Law School, from which he received a doctorate in 1938. He was admitted to the California and federal bars.

While teaching at George Washington University Law School and law for the Securities and Exchange Commission — he married Esther Yanovsky, one of his students.

About this time a "growing sense of vacuum" rekindled his religious interest. He and his wife joined the Protestant Episcopal Church.

Dean Pike was an attorney for the U.S. Maritime Commission and the War Shipping Administration when he began studying for the ministry. He was ordained to the Episcopal priesthood in 1946.

Three years later, he became head of the department of religion at Columbia University, where his work attracted the attention of the Very Rev. Horace W. B. Donegan, Episcopal bishop of New York.

The post of dean at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine had been vacant for 10 years when Dr. Pike was named to it in 1952. Some 3,000 persons crowded the cathedral for his installation.

As dean, Dr. Pike administered cathedral properties, supervised its employees, presided at meetings of the cathedral chapter and preached sermons (notably short; rarely over 15 minutes).

The outspoken dean also found time to get embroiled in controversy.

He had been dean scarcely a year when he withdrew as baccalaureate preacher and declined an honorary degree from the University of the South (Sewanee), an Episcopal school in Tennessee because of its attitude on racial segregation. Said Dean Pike:

"I could not in conscience receive a doctorate in the white divinity which Sewanee apparently is prepared to offer the church hereafter. . . . I doubt if my words at the baccalaureate service would have contributed to the greatest harmony. . . ."

He also was critical of the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.), whose methods of investigation he called "evil . . . another of the Devil's disguises."

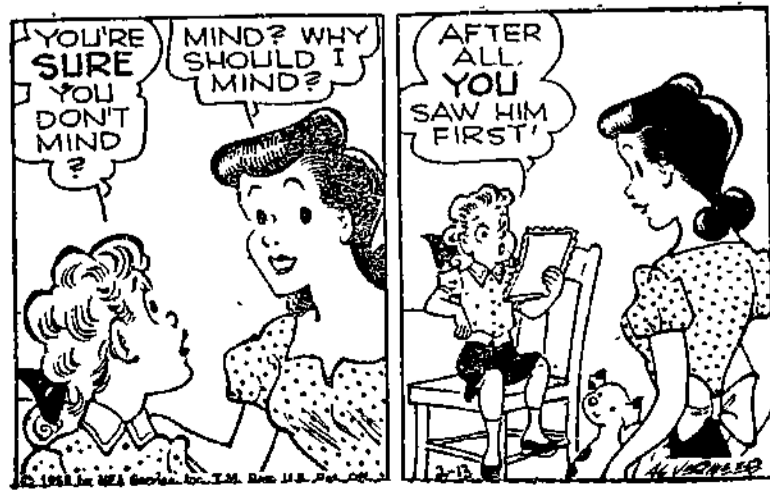

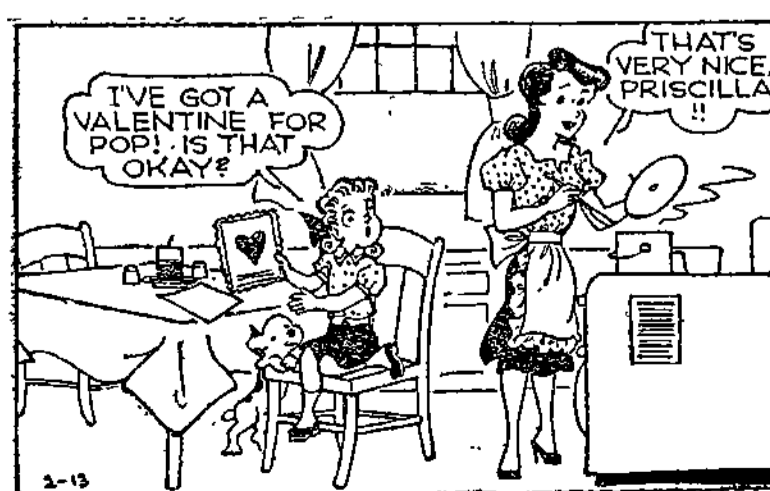

The dean also holds definite opinions on movie censorship ("it depends upon the motive of the viewer and how he receives the experience") and planned parenthood (he favors it).
